Cape Charles Man Steps in Front of Semi, Dies

By Linda Cicoira

A Northampton man was killed last Friday night after he stepped into the path of a tractor-trailer on Lankford Highway near Cape Charles.

State Police 1st Sgt. J.P. Koushel said it was the fourth fatal accident to occur on Virginia’s Eastern Shore this year.

Earl W. Spady of Cape Charles was crossing the road not far from the traffic light at the intersection of Route 13 and Stone Road when a 2012 International Pro-Star Plus tractor pulling a trailer struck him.

Trooper B.D. Kennedy investigated the accident, which was reported at about 10:45 p.m.

The driver, who was alone in the vehicle and was not injured, will not be charged.

Chincoteague Town Taxes Expected To Remain Unchanged Next Year

By Linda Cicoira

Town real-estate and personal-property taxes aren’t likely to increase on Chincoteague Island, according to figures presented at the Town Council meeting Tuesday night.

The more than $7 million draft FY 2014-15 budget includes $5 million in spending for general government. No one spoke at the public hearing. Council is expected to adopt the document later this month.

The draft is balanced with tax rates that are the same as last year: 7 cents per $100 valuation of real estate, 85 cents per $100 of personal property, a 5 percent excise or meals tax and a 4 percent transient-occupancy tax. The motor vehicle license fee is $27.

Solid-waste collection fees are proposed to go from $1.50 to $2 per week. Meals tax money will be going for playground equipment in the upcoming year. Council voted to spend $10,000 for that endeavor.

Finance Director Karen Hipple said it is the first time in several years the town will not buy a new police car. She added that 15.3 percent of the budget is gained through water bills.
Fate of Northampton High School Hangs in Balance

By Ron West

The Northampton Board of Supervisors and Northampton School Board conducted a joint session to discuss the future of a high school in Eastville.

The current high school was constructed in 1954 and has seen a number of renovations and additions over the years. Engineers Dan Gills and Danny Speight conducted a walkthrough of the structure, pointing out areas of concern that need to be addressed if the building is to continue to be used.

Approximately a year ago, the previous School Board investigated the possibility of constructing a new high school/middle school structure on the campus in Eastville. With student enrollment on the decline, the county’s only middle school was closed several years ago. The students who attended that school were relocated to the high school and the two elementary schools. Currently, students in Grades 7 and 8 attend classes in a portion of the high school that has been designated as a middle school within a school. Students in Grade 6 are housed at Kiptopeke and Ocohannock elementary schools.

Estimates for a new middle school/high school structure that would house all students in Grades 6 through 12 run just over $33 million. Renovation of the existing 60-year-old structure to handle all of the students and to bring the building up to code would cost just under $30 million.

County Administrator Katie Nunez noted that the borrowing power of the county for such an endeavor is very limited in that it would be at least five years before additional loans could be sought. Currently, the county is paying down loans obtained for capital improvements, including the courthouse, administrative offices, jail, sheriff’s office, and social services building. Nunez noted that in FY 2018, the county might be able to borrow up to $15 million, or about half of what would be needed for the construction desired by the School Board. She added that borrowing more than $15 million would require a tax increase.

School Board member Shannon Dunham suggested that the county look at step increases for the tax structure of 1 cent per $100 valuation per year over the next five years to help raise funds for the project and make the increases more acceptable to the public. According to numbers provided at a previous County Board session, a one-cent increase in taxes would provide approximately $200,000 in additional income annually.

Regardless of what direction the county leaders take regarding a new or renovated high-school complex, there is still a need to make some repairs at all three schools, including roof replacement at both elementary schools. The cost estimate for each school is $200,000. Other necessary repairs push the immediate needs to just under $600,000. By using unappropriated capital-improvement funds, as well as funds left over from completed projects, that number can be pared down to just under $100,000. The supervisors agreed to look at how best to fund the immediate funding issue, but gave no indication as to what direction to take regarding the long-term needs for the high school.

The one other funding issue raised by School Board member Randy Parks was the need to provide additional funding for step increases in teacher pay. Parks noted that it has been six years since the last pay increase. The cost of a step increase would be just over $177,000. No action was taken by the supervisors on Parks’ recommendation.

GOOD MORNING, NORTHAMPTON COUNTY!

After a long rest from actively participating in the management of our fine county by the Board of Supervisors (BOS), we are all finally waking up to the fact that something has gone horribly wrong while we weren’t watching! Indeed, while our attention was directed elsewhere, seems the special interests hoping to develop our county into a gentrified and virtual resort/retirement community were working triple shifts. And their work product was released several months ago and includes these potentially disastrous changes to our current zoning code:

- Eliminates the Agricultural and Forestal Districts which provide tax incentives for keeping prime farmland in agricultural use;
- Eliminates the protections of the Chesapeake Bay Act on the Seaside - unless they do this, they can’t build those wall-to-wall condos in Oyster and Willis Wharf...farewell to aquaculture;
- Eliminates Mobile Homes in most zoning districts - the special interests apparently don’t want the “economically challenged” folks getting in the way of their county-wide “resort” plans;
- Eliminates Special Use Permits (SUPs) for a large number of adverse land uses, which means no neighbor notification and no public hearings. You won’t know what’s happening next door until you hear the bulldozers!
- Upzones nearly 3,000 acres of prime farmland to residential use, without proper notification to the affected landowners;
- Eliminates “town edge” districts, which encourage future high density development to be located near municipal services, protecting prime farmland and buffers needed to keep our Bay and Seaside waters clean;
- Calls for large scale development along the Route 13 corridor. Note that the permeable soils along this “spine” provide the only source of recharge for our sole source aquifer, and large scale development and paving over of these soils is limited pursuant to our current Comprehensive Plan;
- Increases residential density 400-4,000% (number of houses/acre);
- NOTE: LARGE SCALE ELIMINATION OF FARMING IN NORTHAMPTON COUNTY WILL INCREASE YOUR TAXES!!

..and many more disastrous proposed changes that pose to change our beautiful county forever. The bottom line is we need to make our voices heard over those of the special interests who are influencing the BOS now. Please come out to the next BOS meeting on Tuesday, June 10th, 2014 at 7pm at the Administration Building in Eastville, second floor, and show the BOS we are awake and working!

Healthy Aging Tips for Active Older Adults

The Eastern Shore Family YMCA offers the following tips to encourage older adults to lead healthier lives.

• Have fun with your food. Eating healthy doesn’t have to be boring. Have fun with your fruits and vegetables by trying them fresh, frozen or canned. Find a new recipe that uses a different source of protein or find a way to incorporate fish or beans into an old favorite. Remember that as you age, it’s important to eat a variety of fruits, vegetables, whole grains, low-fat or fat-free dairy and lean meats to help your body get necessary nutrients.

• Fill up on fiber and potassium; hold the salt. As you age, your body needs more fiber rich foods to help it stay regular. Aim for a variety of colorful fruits and veggies on your plate to keep fiber-rich foods a part of your diet. Additionally, increasing potassium and reducing sodium (salt) may lower your risk of high blood pressure. Fruits, vegetables and low-fat or fat-free milk and yogurt are good sources of potassium.

• Tweak your routine. To get the recommended 30 minutes of daily physical activity, change your routine to 10-minute sessions throughout the day. For example, stand on one foot while brushing your teeth to increase balance, and do squats while washing dishes to increase strength. To increase your cardio, take the stairs instead of the elevator or park farther from the entrance to work. When sitting in front of the TV, march during commercials or do some light stretching to break up sitting for long periods.

• Get social. Socialization is an important part of aging. As you get older, it’s important to be active socially to stay healthy. Take a walk with a friend or a neighbor, join a book club or volunteer at your local pet shelter or local Y.

• Take a snooze. It’s important to get seven, but no more than nine hours of sleep at night to keep you healthy. A lack of sleep has been associated with elevated cholesterol and blood pressure. To help get those necessary hours of sleep, leave mobile devices in another room. Digital distractions can disrupt your sleep.

Riverside Shore Memorial Hospital was the only program in Virginia during 2013 to receive this award.

When surveyed by the Commission on Cancer in the fall of 2013, the Cancer Center received Gold Standard Commendation status for earning commendations in all seven possible areas. Those standards include access to clinical trials, clinical outcomes, data quality, advanced education of staff and cancer education efforts within the community. To be recognized for advanced education of staff, one out of four oncology nurses must be properly trained and accredited. At Riverside Shore Cancer Center, 100 percent of oncology nurses are oncology certified. Riverside Shore also was commended for community outreach and awareness efforts.

Early in 2014, programs that received Gold Standard Commendation in all seven standards were considered for the commission’s Outstanding Achievement Award.

“Earning accreditation means meeting some pretty rigorous standards, and receiving the Outstanding Achievement Award means we go above and beyond,” said McAndrews. “Our cancer services demonstrate programmatic and clinical excellence along with impressive patient outcomes.”

“It’s never easy to hear, ‘You have cancer.’ “ said Dr. Drury Stith, Cancer Committee chairperson for Riverside Shore Memorial Hospital. “We never lose sight of that. Here at Riverside Shore Cancer Center, we provide the latest evidence-based treatment according to national guidelines, but with a neighborly touch that only a small cancer center can provide.”

Whooping Cough Poses Threat

The Eastern Shore Health District urges all local residents to stay current in their immunizations to protect those most vulnerable to serious illness and death from pertussis (whooping cough).

Pertussis is a highly contagious respiratory disease spread by coughing and sneezing. Illness typically starts like a cold, with a runny nose, sneezing and mild cough. The cough lasts one to two weeks and then worsens, occurring in fits, sometimes followed by a whooping noise, gagging, or vomiting (but not in every case). The disease can be very serious in children younger than 1 year of age, in whom it can cause lung infections and, less often, seizures or inflammation of the brain. In rare cases, pertussis can result in death, especially in infants.

“The single most effective way to prevent pertussis is vaccination,” said David O. Matson, MD PhD, director of Eastern Shore Health District. “Protection from childhood vaccine wears off over time, generally in five to 10 years, so teens and adults should be revaccinated. Unfortunately, many teens and adults unknowingly carry the bacteria without symptoms or have mild illness because their first vaccine doses at a young age protect them from serious disease, but not from carrying the bacteria and not from spreading pertussis. They are often the source of infection for infants too young to be protected by vaccination. All parents, siblings, grandparents, and caregivers of infants should make sure their pertussis vaccine is current, to help protect the vulnerable infant population. It also should be emphasized that anyone who works with infants, whether in healthcare, daycare or nurseries, must be up-to-date for their vaccines.”

Anyone experiencing Pertussis symptoms is urged to voluntarily isolate themselves at home and as soon as possible call their primary-care physician.

Free vaccine, Tdap, has been available since 2010 at both the Accomack and Northampton health departments. To schedule a free Tdap vaccination, call 787-5880 in Accomack or 442-6228 in Northampton.

Shopping for Diabetics

Grocery shopping presents unique challenges and can be confusing for someone with diabetes or a diabetic family member. Riverside Shore Home Health has teamed up with the Shore’s Food Lion stores to present in-store Diabetic Grocery Shopping seminars. The program is for anyone interested in learning more about healthy eating and shopping for those with diabetes.

The seminar and store tour will be led by Beverly Norris, an RN with Riverside who is a certified diabetic educator and certified health coach. Norris will share tips on portion control, label reading, carbohydrates, sodium, fats, proteins, and whole grains.

The seminars will be offered on Monday, June 23, at 10 a.m. at the Food Lion in Onley and at 1 p.m. at the Food Lion in Cape Charles. Attendance is limited.

Cape Charles Water and Sewer Authority (PSA) currently leases the property behind Cheriton Fire Department to conduct shipboard training. Lee Goldman, director of PAPA, made an unsolicited offer in April to purchase 2.99 acres of town property to develop training opportunities in hopes of obtaining additional contracts for fire training as well as other shipboard training for merchant mariners.

Cheriton Volunteer Fire Company will hold a Fried Chicken Dinner Wednesday, June 25, from 5 to 7 p.m. Dine in or take out. The menu includes fried chicken, seasoned flat green beans, coleslaw, rolls, tea or coffee, and desserts. The cost is $9 for adults and $5 for children younger than 12.

Cheriton Looks To Expand Its Boundaries and Office Space

By Ron West

Northampton Board of Supervisors Chairman Larry LeMond addressed Cheriton Town Council last week with respect to the town’s desire to expand its boundaries.

LeMond asked council to look at how Cheriton might provide services for an area to its east should expansion in that direction be desired. Additionally, he asked if the town has the financial capability to do so and finally, if it is able to pay for a survey if one were needed for the area proposed to be annexed.

Mayor Joe Habel and council members agreed that the town is in good shape financially to do so.

On another issue, town council acknowledged a space problem. Currently, the town office, as well as the Department of Motor Vehicles Select Office, are located in space rented from Cheriton Fire Department. Habel reported that a recent rainfall had caused damage to the office area and that it was time to explore other options for office space. While no decision was made regarding a move, it was agreed to investigate the options.

Town Building Department Director Warren Wisneski reported that a contract to resolve the ongoing drainage issue for a ditch in town had been awarded to B&B Contractors. It is anticipated that the cost will be less than $4,000.

Councilman Greg Hardesty, who represents the town on the Public Service Authority (PSA), reported that the group continues to look at options regarding the size and location for wastewater lines for the area between Cape Charles and Cheriton. Until Cape Charles decides whether it will accept wastewater from outside the town, as well as what fees might be associated with it, the PSA is limited to any actions that it may take.

Council briefly discussed the proposed sale of town property to the Pacific Atlantic Professional Academy (PAPA), which currently leases the property behind Cheriton Fire Department to conduct shipboard training. Lee Goldman, director of PAPA, made an unsolicited offer in April to purchase 2.99 acres of town property to develop training opportunities in hopes of obtaining additional contracts for fire training as well as other shipboard training for merchant mariners. Habel said that with two council members absent, he was reluctant to request a vote on the matter, noting the need for a ¾ majority of the members for the sale of the property. A special session may be called to handle this issue, as well as what direction to take regarding the location of the Town Office.

Exmore Volunteer Fire Department recently obtained a tractor, excavator, and other equipment that will help maintain the town’s water and wastewater lines.

Cape Charles Water and Sewer Authority (PSA) currently leases the property behind Cheriton Fire Department to conduct shipboard training. Lee Goldman, director of PAPA, made an unsolicited offer in April to purchase 2.99 acres of town property to develop training opportunities in hopes of obtaining additional contracts for fire training as well as other shipboard training for merchant mariners. Habel said that with two council members absent, he was reluctant to request a vote on the matter, noting the need for a ¾ majority of the members for the sale of the property. A special session may be called to handle this issue, as well as what direction to take regarding the location of the Town Office.

Onley Resident Dies

Born in Leicestershire, England, she was a daughter of the late Mark Albert Hinton and Emily Elizabeth Ayris Hinton. She came to America on April 4, 1946, on the Queen Mary with other G.I. brides. Mrs. diMeglio was a former public relations director for Levittown Public Library, where in 1964, her oil painting and collage panels of the Cinderella story were displayed at the children’s pavilion of the World’s Fair in New York. In 1967, she won the John Cotton Dana award from the American Library Association. Mrs. diMeglio was also an officer in the Levittown Garden Club and the Embroiderers’ Guild. She was a member of the Early Trades and Craft’s Society and St. Francis of Assisi Episcopal Church in Levittown, where as an officer in the ECW, she instituted the Mothering Sunday Breakfast, a tradition she brought from England.

Retiring to Onley in 1982, Mrs. deMeglio became a member of St. James’ Episcopal Church in Accomac, where she served as president of St. Anne’s Guild and ECW, as well as a vestry member. She was a volunteer with Accomack Interfaith Crisis Council, aocent at Ker Place, a volunteer for Hospice of the Eastern Shore for over 10 years, a member of United Methodist Women, and a longtime member of Onley Recreation Association. She greatly enjoyed gardening and cooking.

Mrs. diMeglio was predeceased by her husband, Eugene diMeglio. Survivors include her son and daughter, Robin diMeglio of Horntown and Cherry Elizabeth diMeglio Radin (and her husband, Victor Robert) of Evanston, Ill.; grandchildren, Miranda Tavares, Nathan Aaron Radin, and Joseph Delanis; great-granddaughter, Emery Elisabeth Radin; and several nieces and nephews and their families. She had two sisters, Bernice Hinton Marriott of Burbage, England, and Lyn Hinton Sparkes.
Dr. James Louis Riopel (Jim), husband of Joan (Gibson); father of daughter Nancy and her husband Tom, son David and his wife Cathy, daughter Amy and her husband Howard and daughter Caitlin; grandfather of Gordie, Taylor, Howie, Austin, Ali, Marina, Michael, and Hanna passed away Friday, May 30, 2014, in his Earlysville, Va., home. His wife and children were at his side. Jim was 80 years old on May 24.

Born in Kittery, Maine, to James and Margaret Riopel, Dr. Riopel graduated from Berwick Academy and Bates College in Maine and then received his master’s degree and PhD from Harvard University. He moved to Charlottesville in 1960 and began a 39-year career at the University of Virginia, becoming a full professor in the Biology Department. His pioneering research, which focused on a root structure known as a haustorium, uncovered that haustoria had a lot of good things have come and gone. Looking back, it’s been good: sunsets at sea, climbing in the Swiss Alps or other adventures and misadventures, often with a dog at his side. They rafted down the Middle Fork of the Salmon River in Idaho, canoed rivers and lakes in Maine, hiked in the Swiss Alps, back-packed in the Bridger Wilderness in Wyoming and rafted rivers in Alaska and Canada. Dr. Riopel once canoed across the Chesapeake Bay in an 18-foot canoe to surprise his son, David, who made sure to drive him back. Dr. Riopel lived his life to the absolute fullest and inspired others to do the same.

In 2000, Dr. Riopel was diagnosed with Alzheimer’s disease. He continued with his adventures for as long as he could. His wife Joan cared for him until the end. In 2006, Jim wrote, “A lot of good things have come and gone. Looking back, it’s been good: sunsets at sea, climbing in the Swiss Alps or perhaps just finding a quiet place on a Maine lake to listen to the loons.”

A memorial gathering will be held at Panorama Farms (3550 Reas Ford Ln.) in Earlysville on June 18 starting at 5 p.m. Please send all correspondence to jameslouisriopel@gmail.com.

Dr. Riopel has been a Member of St. Thomas U.M. Church; longtime Scout leader for Onancock Troop 313; and a Master Mason, Central Lodge 300, AF&AM.

Survivors include his wife, Mary Kathleen Gardner “Kathy” Evans; sons, Michael Oliver Evans of Bloxom and Nathan Edward Evans of Harrisonburg, Va.; sister, Paula Evans Berry (and husband, Jim) of New Church; aunt and uncle, Barbara and Robert E. “Bob” Carr of Bloxom; cousin, Robert E. Carr Jr. of Garner, N.C.; niece and nephew, Margaret Gardner of Franktown and Fred Gardner Jr. (and wife, Jennifer) of Silver Spring, Md.; mother-in-law, Betty Gardner and brother-in-law, Fred Gardner (and wife, Pat), all of Onley; and several cousins and extended family members.

Funeral services were conducted from Williams-Parksley Funeral Home Wednesday, June 4, by Rev. Veronica Barrell and Pastor Fred Gardner. Interment was in Parksley Cemetery.

Memorial donations may be made to St. Thomas U.M. Church Scholarship Fund, c/o Mrs. Ginny Reynolds, 17373 Big Rd., Bloxom, VA 23308; or Hospice of the Eastern Shore, 165 Market St., Suite 3, Onancock, VA 23417. Memory tributes may be shared at www.williamsfuneralhomes.com.

She and Jennings made several trips to France throughout the years to visit her family, but had not visited in over a decade. Mrs. Wescott dreamt of returning to France, but never had the opportunity.

Last Friday, local teams hosted seven conference championships. Three were held at Northampton, three at Nandua and a seventh at Chincoteague.

That’s a lot of activity for one day, and when the dust cleared, four local teams had been crowned conference champions. But with conference runners-up still alive in the playoffs, all seven teams advanced to regional play on Monday.

On Monday, the Nandua baseball and boys’ soccer teams advanced, as did the Northampton boys’ soccer team.

Conference champions included both Nandua and Northampton in boys’ soccer, Nandua in baseball and Northampton in softball.

Under the new Virginia High School League alignment, although the four local public schools are in the Eastern Shore District, come conference play, Nandua and Arcadia are in Conference 33 with King William, Windsor, Bruton and Maggie Walker Governor’s School. Northampton and Chincoteague are in Conference 41 with Appomattox Regional Governor’s School, Franklin, Surry County and Sussex Central.

Good or bad, the new conference alignments do create more playoff opportunities and a better chance to advance for the smaller schools.

To my mind, however, there are not many natural rivalries among conference members, and travel makes regular season games problematic.

Still, I can make sense out of the conference alignments with the exception of Maggie Walker Governor’s School in Richmond in Conference 33 and Appomattox Regional Governor’s School in Conference 41.

Maggie Walker, which does not field a football team, certainly has a strong spring sports program. The Richmond school had three teams playing on the Shore last Friday.

They lost to Nandua in baseball and soccer but beat a strong Northampton girls’ soccer program 5-0. Conferences and size classifications as well were consolidated in girls’ soccer because there are so few schools fielding girls’ soccer teams.

Since there are not many small schools in the Richmond area, Maggie Walker’s schedule includes the area’s 5A and 6A schools, the largest schools in the state.

So they are bound to be tested come playoff time.

Old-timers like me remember when Maggie Walker was a black school in the days of racial segregation. It is named after Maggie L. Walker, the first female bank president of any race to charter a bank in the United States. The school was built in 1938 next to the campus of Virginia Union University.

I recall reading newspaper stories about the annual Maggie Walker-Armstrong football games that would attract as many as 30,000 people at the old City Stadium. The game was simply known as “The Classic,” and there has been a book written about the rivalry.

The schools — the only two black schools in Richmond — produced top football talent, including Willie Lanier, an NFL Hall of Famer with the Kansas City Chiefs who attended Maggie Walker. NBA great Bobby Dandridge and tennis star Arthur Ashe also attended Maggie Walker.

Maggie Walker High School was an exclusively African-American school until the Civil Rights era. It continued as a high school after desegregation of public education in Richmond in 1964. Because of the slow pace of integration and the school’s location in a neighborhood of African Americans, most of its enrollment continued to be African American until 1979, when it ceased operating as a high school.

After a major renovation in 2002, the building became the home of Maggie L. Walker Governor’s School for Government and International Studies, a regional school for gifted children. The current enrollment is 718 students.

With no football team despite the Maggie Walker tradition, today the school hangs its hat on the track team. Maggie Walker won the boys’ 2A East Regional Track Meet handily last week, and the girls’ team tied for the regional crown.

Distance events are their forte, as evidenced by the fact Maggie Walker won both the boys’ and girls’ state cross-country titles last fall.

In the regional meet last week, the boys took six of the first seven places in the 1600-meter and five of the first seven in the 3200-meter. The girls took three of the first four in the 1600-meter and the top two places in the 3200. They also dominated the longer relay events.

One other area where Maggie Walker is even more dominating — although it should not be too surprising since only gifted students attend the school — is the state quizbowl tournament, where it has won 10 state titles in the past 14 years and six national titles in academic competitions.

And that’s my history lesson for today.

Bayside Poker Run Set for July 26

The Pungoteague Ruritan Club will sponsor a small-boat “poker run” Saturday, July 26.

This eighth annual Bayside Poker Run will be held on the waters of the Chesapeake Bay and adjoining creeks in the club’s community service area from Onancock Creek to Occohannock Creek. Any boat owner may register to participate in the event, which is not a race, but simply boaters choosing their own course and pace to locate and visit five pre-chosen locations designated on a nautical chart with notes and guidelines.

Registration for the event is $75 and captains may include as many crew members aboard as Coast Guard regulations allow. Registration forms must be received by July 19. Registration will be limited to the first 30 boats. Registration forms are available from any Pungoteague Ruritan member or by calling Paul Custis at 789-1766. They are also available at Sandpiper Marine, Western Auto in Exmore, Shore Marine, Davis Wharf Marine, Don’s Tackle Shop, K&E Marine, Deep Creek Marina, Wachapreague Marina, Seaworthy Marine, and Eastern Shore Outfitters.

Competition in the event will be in two parts. The “navigational skill” part will be for boaters to plot a course which will enable them to “log in” at five specific locations within designated time allowances. These locations will be spread among Onancock, Pungoteague, Nandua, and Occohannock creeks and will be disclosed to all captains simultaneously at a meeting on the morning of the event.

Points in this competition also will be earned in “Survivor”-type challenges in various activities.

The “luck” part of the event will involve boaters picking up a playing card at each of the five locations and bringing a poker hand to a final destination at 5 p.m. At this location, all boats meet to disclose their hands and have navigation sheets evaluated. The navigation prize will be $350 or more and the poker prize will be a Fall Vacation Getaway package. Additional “dock prize” drawings will be held for fishing gear, boating accessories, and other marine items.

Proceeds from this event will benefit the club’s scholarship program and its handicapped access ramp project fund.

Story and photos by Bill Sterling

Hunter Taylor hit a walk-off homer in the bottom of the eighth inning after Nandua forced extra innings with a run in the bottom of the seventh to beat Goochland 4-3 Monday to advance in the state playoffs.

Ryan Haynie broke a scoreless tie with a two-run homer in the fourth. Goochland scored three runs in the sixth with the help of a costly two-out error that allowed two runs to score.

With the bottom of the lineup coming up, Nandua scratched out a run when David Strautz reached second on an error. Pinch-runner Waylon White stole third and then scored on a squeeze bunt by Evan McGregor. Hunter then ended it in the eighth with a blast over the leftfield fence.

Curtis Ormsby pitched out of a couple of jams with the aid of two double plays turned by the Nandua defense and held Goochland in check until the sixth, allowing just one earned run. Derek Bjorlo got the win with 2.1 innings of scoreless relief.

“The bottom of the order came up huge in the bottom of the seventh,” said Nandua coach Luke Brankley. “This team is refusing to lose and people are stepping up huge for us.”

Nandua Wins Conference

Ryan Haynie hit a pair of homers with three RBIs and held Maggie Walker in check on the mound as Nandua won the Conference 33 baseball tournament 9-1 last Friday.

Haynie allowed three hits while striking out six and walking three batters in earning the win.

Hunter Taylor hit his 10th homer of the year and drove in three runs to support the Nandua cause. The game ended in the seventh when, for one of the few times this season, a runner dared to run on Taylor, who threw the Maggie Walker runner out even though the pitch had bounced a few feet away from him.

Haynie had a double to go with his two round-trippers. Taylor and Evan McGregor had a pair of hits, and Derek Bjorlo had a triple. Jake Guy also hit safely.

“We were clicking on all cylinders,” said Nandua coach Luke Brankley.

Nandua Stopped by Madison

Nandua was on the brink of returning to its third straight Final Four in the baseball state playoffs, but Madison rallied for three runs in the top of the seventh to force extra innings and then scored four in the eighth for a 9-6 win Wednesday.

Playing at home, Hunter Taylor got the Warriors on the scoreboard first with a solo homer, his 12th of the year.

Chincoteague found itself tied 3-3 in the fourth inning of the Conference 41 baseball championship last Friday, but from there Surry pulled away for a 9-4 win.

“We left seven runs on base, and that was huge,” said Pony coach Will Thompson. “We got a taste of championship baseball, but came up short. It will be something to chase for next year by getting back to that game again,” added Thompson, who returns all but two of his Pony players next season.

Mason Marshall was 2 for 4 for Chincoteague, with Corey Reifler getting two RBIs with a double. Kyle Gentry had a triple, and Collin Derrickson had an RBI with a single.

Reifler started and went four innings, given up six runs. Freshman Trey Fisher pitched the final three innings, allowing three runs.

Chincoteague committed nine errors, aiding the Mathews offense, which scored 16 run in the fourth. The Ponies could muster little on offense.

Nandua’s Hunter Taylor, 15, emphatically touches home plate as jubilant teammates look on following a walk-off home run to give Nandua a 4-3 win in eight innings over Goochland in the 2A East regional playoff Monday.
Northampton Wins Conference Softball, Falls in Regional

The Lady Jackets won the Conference 41 softball title Friday with a 15-5 win over Sussex Central on their home field.

Kaylyn Wright was 3 for 3 with two triples and two RBIs while pitching the Jackets to the win, allowing only three hits with four strikeouts and six walks.

Taylor Nadeau was 3 for 4 with a pair of RBIs. Whitney Metz was 2 for 3 with a triple, double and RBI. Makayla Wilson was 2 for 3 with an RBI.

On Monday, Northampton was blanked 8-0 by Middlesex in the 1A East Regional softball playoffs.

“Our bats went cold at the wrong point in the season,” said Northampton coach Devin Allen. “We had a great season in my first year of coaching and will set goals and work hard to return to regionals next year.”

Allen was named Conference 41 Coach of the Year in softball, and Wright was named Player of the Year.

The complete All-Conference and All-District teams will appear in next week’s Post.

Nandua’s Stellar Season Stopped with Playoff Setbacks

The Nandua softallers lost only their second game of the season Friday against 20 wins, but in the finals of the Conference 33 softball championship the Warriors met a pitcher who silenced their bats.

King William’s Kayla Huffman struck out 14 batters and allowed only one hit with no walks to defeat Nandua 5-0 at Onley. King William’s leadoff hitter, Essence Jackson, was 3 for 3 and scored three runs to provide more than enough offense for the Kavaliers.

For Nandua, D’errica Toppin managed the lone hit.

Toppin also pitched a complete game, taking the loss while allowing 10 hits.

Nandua coach Lynn Williams said Huffman was as good as any pitcher he has seen at the high-school level.

“She dominated us early and we expected her to get some strikeouts,” he said. “We talked about improving our at-bats as the game went on, and I felt like we were able to do that.”

Despite outhitting Goochland 11 to 5, Nandua dropped a 6-4 decision on the road Monday to fall out of the regional playoffs.

Kimberly Wert went 3 for 4 for the Warriors with an RBI and a run, but a shaky fifth inning in the field led to three Goochland runs, breaking a 3-3 tie.

Jackie Tremain went 2 for 3 with three RBIs and struck out six and Jesse Leroy was 2 for 2 and scored three runs for the Goochland Bulldogs.

Tyra Bjorlo had two hits and an RBI for Nandua. D’errica Toppin pitched through five innings, with Justis relieving for the final frame.

“Hopefully, this will be a learning experience, and we can grow from it in the end,” said Nandua coach Lynn Williams. “You can’t make defensive mistakes at this level and move on.”

The Warriors went 20-3 this season and graduate only one senior.

Warriors Ousted

Northampton advanced in 1A East regional soccer play Monday night with a 4-3 win over Mathews decided in penalty kicks after four overtimes.

After a scoreless deadlock following 80 minutes of play, Northampton's Jesus Maldonado scored less than a minute into the first five-minute overtime period. Northampton was on the verge of taking a win when Mathews scored with just over a minute remaining in the second overtime to knot the score at 1-1.

After two more scoreless overtimes, Sammy Pineda, Maldonado and Noah Leffel converted penalty kicks, and when goalie Jose Ibarra stopped a Mathews penalty kick, the Jackets had the win and advanced in the state playoffs.

"Penalty kicks involve some luck," said Northampton coach John Gorman. "I'd rather play it out until someone wins. We didn't play all that well, but got the win."

Jackets Win Title

David Wright, Elmis Mayorga and Edgar Sanchez scored first-half goals to give Nandua a 3-0 halftime lead. However, Maggie Walker scored two goals in the second half, and for the last 20 minutes, Nandua had to nurse a one-goal lead to hold on to the victory.

"I believe the bottom-line story of the match, was we won the first half and they won the the second," said Nandua coach Paul Nolz. "Maggie Walker is a very good team who competed until the end."

Nandua Ousted

Nandua was knocked out of the playoffs with a 5-3 defeat at the hands of Riverheads of Staunton Wednesday at home.

Elmis Mayorga scored two goals for Nandua with Seth Lewis adding one. "I am very proud of all the students for what they accomplished this year," said Nandua coach Paul Nolz.

Northampton advanced in 1A East regional soccer play Monday night with a 5-1 win over Amelia Monday night at home.

David Wright gave Nandua a 2-0 halftime lead with a goal late in the first half. The Warriors still held a 2-0 lead with about 15 minutes remaining before they poured in three goals late in the game.

Wright had a pair of goals and David Pacifi, Elmis Mayorga and Tanner Tryer had one each. Assists were recorded by Seth Lewis, Neri Marquez, Andrew Colona, Hunter Cooper and Adrian Clark.

"We started a little slow, but did better in the second half," said Nandua coach Paul Nolz.

Warriors Top MW for Conference Title

Nandua survived a second-half comeback by Maggie Walker to earn a 3-2 win and the Conference 33 soccer championship.

After two more scoreless overtimes, Sammy Pineda, Maldonado and Noah Leffel converted penalty kicks, and when goalie Jose Ibarra stopped a Mathews penalty kick, the Jackets had the win and advanced in the state playoffs.

"Penalty kicks involve some luck," said Northampton coach John Gorman. "I'd rather play it out until someone wins. We didn't play all that well, but got the win."

Jackets Win Title

Northampton won the Conference 41 soccer championship with a James Teeling goal in the fourth sudden-death overtime for a 2-1 win over the Appomattox Governor's School Friday at Eastville.

Sammy Pineda had scored midway through the second half to give Northampton a 1-0 lead before Appomattox tied the game with a goal with seven minutes remaining.

With only a little over a minute left in the fourth overtime after a barrage of feverish attacks, James Teeling calmly placed a spectacular shot from 18 yards, giving the Jackets the conference championship.

Jackets Fall to Essex

Northampton dropped a 3-0 soccer match to Essex Wednesday night on the road in the 1A East Regional playoffs.

"Essex played well and controlled the ball," said Northampton coach John Gorman. "We had a good season and accomplished some good things, but didn't have enough tonight."

Northampton’s bid for a conference soccer title was stopped short by Maggie Walker Friday as the visitors took a 5-0 decision at Eastville.

The Lady Jackets are forced to compete against 2A schools in the conference tournament because so few schools field girls' soccer teams. Northampton was the only 1A school remaining in the tournament.

"My girls played very well under the circumstances as they are not used to that level of play," said Jacket coach Tabi Webb. Maggie Walker had previously beaten Bruton 9-0 and Essex 10-1 in the conference tournament.

Maggie Walker scored all five of its goals in the last 20 minutes of the first half. "We kept them scoreless in the second half. My girls adjusted well and played an excellent second half," said Coach Webb. "I couldn't be prouder of them for the season they've had and the fact that they kept fighting to the end of the game, regardless of the score."

Jackets Fall in Region

Northampton was eliminated from the state playoffs with a 4-1 loss to Goochland Monday night on the road.

The Lady Jackets trailed only 1-0 at halftime after Goochland scored on a long goal two minutes into the game.

Goochland scored off a rebound in the second half to take a 2-0 lead, but Taylor Webb responded with a Jacket goal on a difficult angle from her wing position.

Goochland added two goals, including a long-distance shot, to make the final 4-1.

"We were physically out-matched, which was magnified by the type of play and fouls that were being allowed," said Northampton coach Tabi Webb. "We had our chances, we had some very nice shots that would have gone in on any other goalie, but their goalie was very good."

Northampton had eight shots on goal to Goochland's 14. Jacket goalie Katie Spady had 10 saves to Goochland's seven.

"My girls have had a very productive season, probably the best team I've had as a whole, ever. They are all hard-working team players and I am very proud of them," said Webb.

Northampton Girls Place Ninth in 1A Regional Track Meet

The Northampton girls scored 22 points in the Region 1A East track and field championships held last week in Charles City. The total was good for a ninth-place finish. West Point won the meet with 65.75 points.

Northampton's 4x100 relay team of Tylor Campbell, Antonia Fitchett, Desha Fitchett and Keona Smith finished third in the 4x100-meter relay with a time of 53.1.

Desha Fitchett had a sixth-place finish in the 200-meter run (28.16).

Shore Needs SANE; RSMH Wrong

Dear Editor:

My husband and I recently bought a home here on the Eastern Shore and truly think it is heaven on earth. However, this letter is in response to the controversy about bringing a Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner Program to the Eastern Shore. This is from Virginia's own attorney general.

At one time in Virginia, a person could not be found guilty of raping a spouse, unless they were living separate and apart or the defendant caused bodily injury to the spouse by the use of force or violence. This was referred to as the “marital rape exemption.” In 2002, through the efforts of former Attorney General Jerry Kilgore, the statute was amended by the General Assembly to eliminate the marital rape exemption. In addition, marriage was once an absolute defense to statutory rape where the perpetrator married the minor victim. Effective July 1, 2008, the subsequent marriage of an adult to a minor (14 years of age or older) is not a defense to statutory rape of that child.

In 1996, the Drug-Induced Rape Prevention and Punishment Act was enacted to address the problem of “date rape.” The law provides penalties of up to 20 years’ imprisonment and fines for persons who intend to commit a crime of violence (including rape), by distributing a controlled substance to another individual without that individual’s knowledge.

Physical Evidence Recovery Kit (PERK) exams, are performed by healthcare providers on victims of sexual assault to obtain and document physical evidence of the crime. Prior to July 2008, victims were required to report sexual assault to law-enforcement or pursue criminal charges in order to obtain PERK exams at no cost. Effective July 1, 2008, however, participation in the criminal justice system or cooperation with law enforcement is no longer required for victims to be provided with PERK exams free of charge.

This is the type of information that many women do not have access to! I am a SANE for New Jersey and assisted in the start-up of New Jersey’s first statewide SANE program in Ocean County. There are grants that have been established to assist nurses in reimbursement for becoming certified as a SANE. I never had a specific number of exams that I had to do to remain certified. Any continuing education was handled by the International Association of Forensic Nurses (IAFN), not the state or the hospital. The IAFN monitors and requires its nurses to keep up with their skills for re-certification.

What I find most upsetting is Riverside’s view that because there are fewer than 80 exams, a SANE isn’t warranted. I can assure you that there are many unreported sexual assaults on the Eastern Shore because there are no advocates to help walk them through the process. There is no one to collect evidence immediately and competently. For the victim to first suffer the assault and then wait sometimes hours is something none of us want to continue. And for those of you who think because only a few sexual assaults happen per year, the SANE program is not needed, what if one of those few were your daughter, granddaughter, mother or grandmother? And yes, it also happens in nursing homes and assisted-living facilities.

So please … I encourage everyone to write your local politician and ask that a SANE program be implemented as soon as possible.

Back in the day, we wanted our jeans to be as faded and paper-thin as possible. They just weren’t soft, comfortable or the right color until they had gone through the washing machine at least 50 times.

But now the spin cycle in my world is out of control. That’s right, the load is definitely unbalanced and needs to be redistributed. That is if I choose to adhere to the laundering tip being offered by a Fortune 500 executive.

This revelation came during the 141st birthday celebration of Levi’s 501 jeans. The company’s CEO admitted that he hadn’t washed his pants in a year. Uh, I think it’s time to break out the fire hose! And award a winner in the category of “Toughest Laundry Detergent.”

Let me attempt to explain. There’s a new line of jeans called “Waterless.” The CEO bragged to a crowd that he has “yet to get a skin disease.” Um. Comforting.

Apparently, these jeans are supposed to be put in the freezer instead of the washer. I think this literally reeks of conspiracy. Perhaps there has been a merger?

He said the freezer would kill off any bacteria. Yeah. Sure. This has got to be a nightmare. What happened to cleanliness being next to godliness?

I just pray that this practice does not occur next to the ice cream or the cubes that are being stored in that cooling compartment. I’m shuddering. And I’m wondering at what point the pants would be put back on? Does one thaw them out first? Will one be able to go to the Laundermat and with a couple of dollars worth of quarters enter the deep ice-over zone? And will some doctor have to invent a vaccine for freezer burn?

It could happen.

OK, so I did a little more research and learned some other scary facts.

The University of Alberta conducted a study in 2011 that compared bacteria levels on a pair of jeans not washed for over a year with a pair that was laundered after almost two weeks of wear. It found practically identical levels.

Am I the only person on the planet who does not wear the same clothes for two weeks before washing them? That just can’t be. Ooow!

“I was pleasantly surprised,” said Assistant Professor of Ecology Rachel McQueen. “What I found was just normal skin flora. The counts were really, really similar. The bacteria load from the swabbed areas were pretty much the same.”

Uh, Those words “bacteria” and “swabbed” get me every single time. I am grimacing so much I have probably caused myself to get permanent wrinkles. Do I have to put my face in the freezer now? No way I’m getting my checkbones next to jeans that can stand up in the corner.

So what to do? Ignore the industry leaders. Wash your clothes and allow them to become worn out. Look in the chair before sitting down. Change your underwear daily. Start wearing a gas mask in public. I don’t know, I’m guessing here.

Wait a second. I think www.ebay.com is coming to the rescue. That website says to turn your denim inside out before putting it in the washing machine. “This will help prolong the life by preventing the indigo dye from running.” Always wash in cold water to prevent any shrinkage. Don’t put the detergent directly on the material. Don’t let the clothing soak. And don’t put the pants in the dryer or hang them in the sun.

There are always khaki pants. They would fade in with the color of frozen chicken better. And would merge with the political statement made by that talk-show host Rush Limbaugh who never wears jeans because they are associated with long-haired-hippie-freaks.

I think I’ll just run right out and buy me a pair. And I will sell you the gum stuck to the bottom of my shoe, which I might put in the freezer before scraping off. I think putting things in the freezer could be like using spray paint. One just can’t stop. AHHHHH
